Lady Jacket Volleyball Blog

October 23, 2017

We are currently nine weeks into the season and it has absolutely flown by. We are getting down to the last few weekends of G-MAC play which means we are getting closer to tournament time! But before I get ahead of myself, I'll tell you a little bit about our three-match campaign this past weekend.

The team finished up mid-term week on Wednesday and headed into "Fall Break" ready to play some volleyball in West Virginia!! We left campus at 11 a.m. on Thursday morning embarking on our adventure. We took our time and made a pit stop for lunch at Panera (YUM!), one of our favorite places to eat! We relaxed in the bus (aka our second home) and did homework until we arrived at Alderson Broaddus for our first match of the weekend. We started the match fantastic in set one and maybe became a bit too confident and ran into a few hiccups during the rest of the match. It was a match of runs which put us in a fifth set. For lack of better words, we crippled across the finish line with a win. Not the path we wished to take for this match, but the overarching win was our ultimate goal.

That night, we traveled a little way and stopped at an IHOP for a late dinner (coach enjoyed some pumpkin spice pancakes...happy fall!) and arrived at our hotel for the weekend. I'm pretty sure we live in hotels during season and this one was our favorite so far! We hit the hay to rest up for our Friday morning surprise adventure. In the morning, we headed out to Fort Prickett and had the opportunity to learn a little bit about families that lived in WV in the 1700's. We spent time listening to stories of the Prickett family, listening to stories from our driver Tammy, and watching fabric be made by hand. It was so interesting and I kind of wished we had more time there! The scenery is beautiful, and history is one of my favorite things.

Later that day we headed to David & Elkins for our second match of the weekend. The match went very well for us, a great improvement of play on our behalf from the night before. We figured out some focus and intensity problems we had the night before. We finished the match 3-0 in sets. After the match, Davis & Elkins generously gave us some leftover food they had from their pre-game grill out which we gratefully took! We're weren't going to have enough time to make it to the restaurant we were planning on going to. God is good, and Davis & Elkins was kind enough to provide!

We then traveled back to our hotel to get some rest for Saturday's match against Ohio Valley. We woke up ready to play and finish off the weekend with another win. We headed to the school in the morning and arrived and warmed up well in a difficult gym (low ceilings) to play. Ohio Valley gave us a great match! It was tight each set, yet we squeaked out a 3-0 win in the end. This brand new OVU team showed up to play and we learned some more of our weaknesses on the court in turn. But, all in all, we came off the weekend with three wins. Something that is difficult to do! It's very tiring but the team didn't crash until we got on the bus to come back home! That was our Fall Break in WV!

We are excited for a HUGE week of play as we clinched a spot in the G-MAC tourney with our wins, we look forward to playing for seeding. Thanks for reading! Please continue to pray for the team to find time to rest physically as well as rest in the Lord this week!! We are thankful for you!

Tonight's Match

The Cedarville University women's volleyball team hosts the University of Indianapolis Greyhounds in non-conference action tonight in the Callan Athletic Center.

Cedarville, under the direction of tenth-year Head Coach Doug Walters (217-141), is 14-11 overall having won four consecutive matches. The Lady Jackets swept three G-MAC road matches last week in West Virginia.

Indianapolis, an NCAA II member of the Great Lakes Valley Conference (GLVC) is 12-11 on the season with 7-4 conference record. Indy has dropped four of their last five contests including a 3-1 verdict to league opponent Southern Indiana on Saturday.

Continuing to lead the Lady Jacket front line attack is Gabby Olson - the current G-MAC Athlete of the Week. The 6-4 senior middle hitter tops the squad with 317 kills, 119 blocks and 36 service aces.

The squad's only other senior, outside hitter Krissy Pratt, ranks second with 244 kills and 285 digs. Pratt now has 905 kills in her four year career.

Rookie setter Sierra Schuitema leads CU with 567 assists while classmate Lindsey Bray adds 385 assists.

Head Coach Jason Reed is in his fifth season with the Greyhounds (88-63). He led Indy to their 17th consecutive GLVC Tournament appearance last fall.

Leading the Indianapolis offense are a trio of sophomore front row attackers. Anna Fehribach, a 6-0 outside hitter, has 205 kills while 5-11 outside hitter Rachel Irbe adds 189 kills for the squad. Julia Kruzan, a 6-0 outside hitter, has 185 kills while ranking third with 47 total blocks. Rookie libero Olivia Martin has a team-best 451 digs.

CU leads the all-time series with Indy by a 12-5 margin and has won the previous two meetings with the Greyhounds - Sept. 8, 2015 in Indianapolis and Sept. 13, 2016 in Cedarville.
